WHAT'S NEW?

Database of the Month: Gale Courses

NEW! Monarch Library System now has access to Gale Courses! This is a collection of highly interactive, instructor-led, online courses that run for six weeks at a time with new sessions beginning every month. They are all FREE when you login with your library card. The courses cover a broad range of topics for both personal and professional learning. Examples include Intro to Microsoft Excel, Speed Spanish, A to Z Grant Writing, Keys to Effective Communication, Creating WordPress Websites, and many more! To access the courses, click on Gale Courses on our Research Databases page of our library website or do a keyword search for Gale Courses in our catalog: MonarchCat.org.

Fill the Shelves - Friends campaign

Please support CPL and help enhance our collection! Gift a book from our CPL Amazon wish lists (and then be the first to check it out!); purchase an item in honor of or in memory of a friend, family member, etc.; or make purchases on Amazon Smile with Cedarburg Friends of the Library as the designated non-profit to support. (Amazon donates 0.5% of the price of eligible purchases.) Full details at www.cedarburglibrary.org/gift-a-book/. Thanks for supporting the library!

Head of Youth Services: Nancy Krajecki

Congratulations to our very own Nancy Krajecki who has been hired as our new Head of Youth Services Librarian! Nancy has been working here as a Youth Services Assistant for nearly the past four years. She will begin her new position on January 22, and a job opening will be posted for her vacant Youth Services Assistant position shortly. We're very excited to have Nancy onboard in this new role!

CPL Adult Book Club: Jan 15

All adults are welcome to attend our CPL Adult Book Club on Monday, January 15 at 6:30 pm. Title selection is Born a Crime: Stories from a South African Childhood, an autobiography by Trevor Noah.
