WHAT'S NEW?

Local Author Showcase: April 9

Stop by CPL on Sat, April 9 from 10:00 am - 12:00 pm to meet local authors of adult and youth books. Authors include: Brett Champan, David Miles, Jerry Kiesow, Jim Bohn, Ph.D., Jim Cryns, John Luthens, Lori M. Lee, Martha Bergland, Mary Rickert, PJ Sanders, Richard Thieme, and Valerie A. Nichols. It's an open house- style program where you can stop by the tables of each author to chat with them and purchase books to be signed. Refreshments will also be served. No registration required.

National Library Week

National Library Week is April 10-16 with the theme of "Libraries Transform." This national celebratory week sponsored by the American Library Association promotes libraries across the country and the contributions they make to communities. CPL will be celebrating this week with activities including button making, library-themed puzzles, and a "Guess That Shredded Book" contest. Replacement library cards at the Check-Out Desk will also be FREE the whole month of April (normally $3). Join in the fun!

CPL Book Club & author visit: April 18

CPL Adult Book Club meets Mon, April 18 from 6:30 pm - 7:45 pm. Title selection is They Are All My Family by John P. Riordan. Book discussion led by Library Director Linda Pierschalla will be from 6:30 - 7:00 pm. Riordan will speak from 7:00 - 7:45 pm, including selling and signing copies of his book.
