WHAT'S NEW?

Art in the library

Have you noticed some new art on our library walls? We received a generous collection of pieces on loan to us from the Cedarburg Art Museum. Take a walk through the whole building to scope them out! There are two new pieces in our staircase as well- Whirligig by Claudette Lee-Roseland and Blue October Ice, a collaborative piece by writer W.A. Reed, artist Deb Mortl, artist Claudette Lee-Roseland, and photographer Vicki Reed. If you are interested in displaying art in the library, please read our CPL Art Policy and complete our Art Application found on our website at <http://www.cedarburglibrary.org/explore/public-art/>.

Database of the Month: Morningstar

Our featured Database of the Month is Morningstar Investment Research Center. Get comprehensive financial investment information using this database. Morningstar provides up-to-date company and market trends information for the novice to expert investor. Investment coverage and advice is provided by unbiased experts through their monthly newsletter, articles, and videos. Access Morningstar from the CPL Research Databases webpage, located under the Business & Finance subject heading. Guidance on using the database is provided through Morningstar tutorials or by meeting with a Cedarburg librarian. Go ahead, tap into this information and make the most of this database offered through CPL!

CPL table at the Farmers Market

Stop by the Cedarburg Farmers Market in the parking lot behind the Cedarburg Cultural Center on Fridays through October to visit our CPL table! (Yep, even the library staff leaves the library sometimes.) We will be offering free wifi access, library card sign-up, used books for sale, and more. We'd love to see your friendly faces there.
