LIBRARY NEWS

Director's Message

Summer is here! This is the busiest time of the year for the library. We truly enjoy seeing everyone at the library, especially the kids who are out of school and coming in to register for our great summer reading program. We also have an active adult summer reading program with prize incentives and programs too. So please take part in all we have to offer or just stop in for a cool place to relax during the warm weather days. We are happy to have you here.

A large amount of thanks goes to our wonderful Cedarburg Friends of the Library! Without their financial support our programs would not be possible. Consider supporting the library with a Friends membership or shopping the used book sale, July 7-12, and the year round Buy the Book bookstore. Your donation to the library is always appreciated.

Linda Eastwood,
Library Director

Important Update to Hoopla Checkouts

Since May 1, the number of monthly Hoopla checkouts has reduced from 6 to 4 per library card, due to rising service costs. But there's good news! Hoopla Bonus Borrowers are available at the end of each month—these special titles don't count against your monthly limit and don't cost the library anything.

Be sure to explore these extra checkouts and enjoy more of the movies, TV shows, music, eBooks, and audiobooks you love—for free! Questions? Our staff is happy to help.

Welcome Kelly Ann

In February 2024, I moved to the town of Cedarburg from Florida, and despite the cold winters, I'm thrilled that Wisconsin is now my home. For as long as I can remember, libraries have always been for me magical places of wonder and discovery. When I was a child, libraries were all about access to books, and a week didn't go by when I didn't check out a stack of books. It is no surprise that my love of libraries and reading led me to a degree in English, followed by twelve years of teaching English to high school and middle school students in Florida.

As an adult, I still love to check out a stack of books, but the library is more than just books. It is a place of community and belonging. I've always felt like I am home when I enter a library, but never more so than when I first became a patron at Cedarburg Public Library. When I'm not working a shift as a library aide or volunteering with the Cedarburg Friends of the Library, you'll find me cross stitching at CPL's Needle Arts Club on Wednesday afternoons. Outside of the library, I enjoy reading, cross-stitching, hiking, and gardening.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

FREE FOR ALL: THE PUBLIC LIBRARY
—a showing of the PBS
Independent Lens documentary
plus discussion
Tuesday, Jun. 3
Time: 1:00 PM - 3:00 PM

Kick off the summer reading season with the newly released documentary, Free for All: The Public Library. This exciting new documentary premiered on PBS Indie Lens in April. The film chronicles the evolution of the nation's public libraries, tracing the battles over who can enter, what belongs there, and who makes these decisions, while exploring how public spaces are defined and defended.

Directors Dawn Logsdon and Lucie Faulknor traveled the US, discovering unsung historic and modern-day figures, often women, who contributed to the library's integral position within democracy. The film charts the institution's trajectory from America's original Free Library Movement that began in the mid-19th century to current struggles in a digital age amidst budget cuts, closures, and polarizing book bans. Following the stories of public library visitors and staff striving to implement innovative policies, the documentary celebrates a civic institution whose offerings are free and whose doors are open to all. A couple of Wisconsin libraries are also highlighted in the film.

The film lasts an hour and there will be time for a talkback with the Library Director, Linda Eastwood, and others following the film for those who want to stay and engage. Refreshments and a drawing for a prize basket will also be a part of the event.
