Inspiring Lifelong Learning

If I was a book, I'd like to be a library book, so I'd be taken home by all sorts of kids.

WHAT'S NEW?

2018 Cedarburg Reads Recognizes World Alzheimer's Month

Do you have a loved one with Alzheimer's? This month we are focusing on brain health, caregiving, and community resources. See more events listed below or on our website.

Bridge the Divide: Implicit Bias | September 4 * 6 pm

Bridge The Divide (Cedarburg Conversations on Race) is a forum for discussion and action around racial reconciliation. The group seeks to identify instances of inequality, foster empathy, and educate others to recognize their part in the the problems and solutions in Ozaukee County. The group meets the first Monday night of the month (except this month due to Labor Day) from 6-8pm in the Community Room.

Computer Classes: Gale Courses, How to Navigate Your Computer, and RB Digital | September 6, 13, & 20 * 1 pm

Computer classes have resumed! On designated Thursdays, learn how to sign up for Gale Courses to continue your education on numerous topics, navigate your computer, and how to use RbDigital Magazines on your device. In the Community Room.

Brain Health As You Age | September 11 * 6 pm

We all want to stay healthy and independent as we get older. Along with keeping our bodies in good shape, we want to keep our minds healthy, too. Join Kathy Jeans Glaser, Dementia Care Specialist from the Aging and Disability Resource Center of Ozaukee County to learn more about this important topic and what people of all ages can do.

You're Looking at Me Like I Live Here & I Don't | Sept. 17 * 6 pm

Please join us for a screening of this powerful documentary filmed entirely in an Alzheimer's care facility. Meet Lee Gorewitz, an unforgettable woman whose daily struggles with this devastating disease are captured by film director/producer Scott Kirschenbaum. It will break your heart while leaving you utterly charmed by this remarkable woman.

My Two Elaines: Author Visit | September 25 * 6:30 pm

Join us for a meaningful 2018 Cedarburg Reads evening with author Martin J. Schreiber as he discusses his book "My Two Elaines: Learning, Coping and Surviving as an Alzheimer's Caregiver." More than an account of his struggles as a caregiver for his wife, the former governor of Wisconsin candidly counsels others who are in a caretaking role and offers wise advice and special guidance for men. Sure to be a memorable evening for all who attend.
