WHAT'S NEW?

Summer Reading Program

Our Summer Reading Program for all ages (babies, children, teens and adults) begins on Thursday, June 8th! Stop by the Youth and Adult Services Desks to register. The theme is “Build a Better World,” and we have lots of events going on the whole summer- reading logs, prizes, special guest performers, and more! Our Summer Reading Program is generously sponsored by the Cedarburg Friends of the Library. For more information visit our online events calendar or call 262-375-7640.

Build a Better World Lecture Series

You’re invited to join us for a 4-week lecture series, Monday nights at 6:30 pm from June 19th through July 10th, on topics related to Building a Better World. No registration is required. This series is co-hosted by Cedarburg Public Library and Grafton Public Library. Thank you to our sponsors: Wisconsin Humanities Council and Ozaukee Master Gardeners. The lectures include “The Paradox of Being a Black Police Officer in Today’s Society” (June 19); “Human Trafficking in Wisconsin” (June 26); “Everything You Wanted to Know About Immigration But Were Afraid To Ask: An evening with an immigration lawyer” (July 3); and “Vertical Gardening” (July 10). See our online events calendar for more details.

New! CPL Video Game Collection

We recently added a Video Game Collection! It is located next to the DVD area on the first floor. We have PlayStation 4, Xbox One, Wii U, Wii, and Nintendo Switch games. They check out for 14 days and are holdable/renewable. Please consider helping us build up this collection by donating video games you may be looking to find a new home for.

Database of the Month: NoveList

NoveList is a fiction recommendation resource that provides users with read-alikes (for titles or authors), discussion guides, reading lists, and more. It is available through our research databases page on our website (<http://www.cedarburglibrary.org/explore/research-databases/>). Take a look and discover the titles waiting to be read by you!
